La Briciola

Daniel Scheffler writing for I V Y paris

In the epicenter of Parisian trendiness comes a truly unashamed Italian bistro offering freshness and understated simplicity.

Dark rocket leaves, many tomatoes and shavings of parmesan cover an eclectic plate of Southern Italy.

Order pizzas with ricotta and ask for chillies whilst the owners pour heavy shots of limoncello.

The interior is minimal and allows for the focus of the restaurant to be on the handsome food. Book for big tables and enjoy exceptional wines served by the carafe.

Berko Bakery

Inspired from Sex and the City's cupcake craze (see Magnolia Bakery) comes Berko Bakery, our very own Parisian version.

This colorfully frosted pastry shop offers a number of original recipes, both savory and sweet.

We recommend their cheesecake made from real Philadelphia cream cheese, available also in bite-size to accompany your café.
